

Vienna, August 8th 2024

Judo Austria is currently looking for:

National Team Coach (male or female) U21 & U23 full time, starting date November 1st 2024

Please submit your CV, a dossier of documentary evidence confirming your eligibility and a detailed concept (2-4 pages) and send it to jobs@judoaustria.at not later than September, 30th 2024.

→ What we offer:

- Full time position
- Permanent contract with regular evaluation of performance with regards to the Olympic Cycle (2028), starting date November 1st 2024
- Gross minimum annual salary based on full time position of 45.000€ with readiness of overpayment depending on qualification and experience
- Professional training conditions
- Open minded work environment, prepared for team players
- Place of employment: Linz

→ What we expect:

- Individual development of our U21 and U23 National Team athletes focusing on specialisation of their technical-tactical profiles and physical condition on entering highest level of Judo
- Leading function in U21 & U23
- Close cooperation and coordination with National Team Coach Elite and the whole coaching staff of Judo Austria
- Cooperation with Regional- and Club Coaches
- Planning, supervision, control, organisation and execution of training and competition activities
- Execution of trainings at the allocated performance centre
- Constant visit of all performance centres of Judo Austria
- Nomination of the U21 & U23 National Teams to prime events
- High level of organisational skills
- Regular reporting to Sport Director and Executive Board
- Preparation and controlling of allocated budgets

→ Your profile:

- Representing judo values on and next to the tatami
- Concluded coach education
- Comprehensive, practical expertise of Judo (technical and tactical abilities) and knowledge of the current development in international, competitive Judo
- Several years of experience of coaching within a high-performance environment and the responsibility of national team athletes
- Ability to recognize and analyse complex athletic connections
- Effective communication skills
- Striving for continuous improvement leading to excellent performance, ability to work on own and as a team
- Ability to recognize and de-escalate conflicts
- Able to communicate in German and English
- Computer skills
- Capable of partaking in an extensive travelling schedule (national and international) and working on weekends
- Driving license B
- Criminal record not older than three months

→ Who we are:

Judo Austria is the official association of Judo in Austria and one of the most successful federations at Olympic Summer Games. There are 9 regional federations, approx. 200 clubs and 25.000 active members doing recreational and professional judo.

We are looking forward to receiving your application!