

Vienna, March 30th 2026

Judo Austria is currently looking for:

National Team Coach (male or female) U23/perspective team full time, starting date June 1st 2026 (position available immediately)

Please submit your CV, a dossier of documentary evidence confirming your eligibility and a detailed concept (2-4 pages) and send it to jobs@judoaustria.at not later than April, 19th 2026.

→ What we offer:

- Full time position
- Permanent contract with regular evaluation of performance with regards to the Olympic Cycle (2028), starting date June 1st 2026 (position available immediately)
- Gross minimum annual salary based on full time position of 48.000€ with readiness of overpayment depending on qualification and experience
- Professional training conditions
- Open minded work environment, prepared for team players
- Place of employment: National Training Center Linz

→ What we expect:

- Individual development of our U23 and perspective National Team athletes focusing on specialisation of their technical-tactical profiles and physical condition on entering highest level of Judo
- Execution of trainings at the national training center in Linz
- Planning, supervision, control, organisation and execution of training and competition activities
- Close cooperation and coordination with Headcoach, National Team Coach Elite and the whole coaching staff of Judo Austria
- Cooperation with Regional- and Club Coaches
- Constant visit of all performance centres of Judo Austria
- Collaboration on the competitive sports and training concept
- High level of organisational skills
- Regular reporting to Sport Director and Executive Board

→ Your profile:

- Representing judo values on and next to the tatami
- Concluded coach education
- Comprehensive, practical expertise of Judo (technical and tactical abilities) and knowledge of the current development in international, competitive Judo
- Several years of experience of coaching within a high-performance environment and the responsibility of national team athletes or former high-level athlete (World Championships or Olympic Games)
- Ability to recognize and analyse complex athletic connections
- Able to communicate in German and/or English
- Effective communication skills
- Striving for continuous improvement leading to excellent performance, ability to work on own and as a team
- Ability to recognize and de-escalate conflicts
- Computer skills
- Capable of partaking in a travelling schedule (national and international) and working on weekends
- Driving license B
- Criminal record not older than three months

→ Who we are:

Judo Austria is the official association of Judo in Austria and one of the most successful federations at Olympic Summer Games. There are 9 regional federations, approx. 200 clubs and 25.000 active members doing recreational and professional judo.

We are looking forward to receiving your application!