

Judo Austria is currently looking for:

National Team Coach (male or female) U16 & U18 full time, starting date November 1st 2020

Please submit your CV, a dossier of documentary evidence confirming your eligibility and a detailed concept (2-4 pages) and send it to jobs@judoaustria.at not later than Sept. 6th 2020

→ What we offer:

- Full time position
- Permanent contract with regular evaluation of performance with regards to the Olympic Cycle (2021-2024), starting date November 1st 2020
- Gross minimum annual salary based on full time position of 35.000€ with readiness of overpayment depending on qualification and experience
- Professional training conditions
- Open minded work environment, prepared for team players
- Place of employment: Austria

→ What we expect:

- Development of our U16 and U18 National Team athletes focusing on gaining technical-tactical profiles and improving physical condition to high level Judo
- Leading function in U16 & U18
- Close cooperation and coordination with the whole coaching staff of Judo Austria
- Cooperation with Regional- and Club Coaches
- Planning, supervision, control, organisation and execution of training and competition activities
- Execution of trainings at the allocated performance centre
- Constant visit of all performance centres of Judo Austria
- Nomination of the U16 & U18 National Teams to prime events
- Scouting for promising athletes
- Regular reporting to Sport Director and Executive Board
- High level of organisational skills
- Preparation and controlling of allocated budgets

→ Your profile:

- Representing judo values on and next to the tatami
- Concluded coach education
- Comprehensive, practical expertise of Judo (technical and tactical abilities) and knowledge of the current development of young athletes in international, competitive Judo
- Several years of experience of coaching young athletes within a high-performance environment
- Ability to recognize and analyse complex athletic connections
- Effective communication skills, especially with young athletes
- Striving for continuous improvement leading to excellent performance, ability to work on own and as a team
- Ability to recognize and de-escalate conflicts
- Able to communicate in German and English
- Computer skills
- Capable of partaking in an extensive travelling schedule (national and international) and working on weekends
- Driving license B
- Criminal record not older than three months

→ Who we are:

Judo Austria is the official association of Judo in Austria and one of the most successful federations at Olympic Summer Games. There are 9 regional federations, approx. 200 clubs and 25.000 active members doing recreational and professional judo.

We are looking forward to receiving your application!